Bali Dive Sites

Bali has some of the world’s best dive sites eg. Tulamben (USAT Liberty wreck), Nusa Penida Manta Point (Mola Mola/Sunfish and Manta Ray) also Gili Tepekong (popular for advanced divers).

Tulamben

Tulamben is a small fishing village on the north-east coast of Bali. It is among the most popular dive sites on Bali as this is where the wreck of the Liberty, a US Army Transport ship torpedoed by a Japanese submarine in 1942 lies just offshore. More..

Nusa Penida Manta Point

Nusa Penida is an island southeast of Indonesia’s island Bali and a district of Klungkung Regency that includes the neighboring small island of Nusa Lembongan. The Badung Strait separates the island and Bali. The interior of Nusa Penida is hilly with a maximum altitude of 524 meters.

Amed

Amed is a long coastal strip of fishing villages in Karangasem Regency, Bali, Indonesia. It is an area developing for tourism while holding on to tradition. Amed is slowly becoming known a travellers hub for free diving, scuba diving, yoga and yoga teacher trainings.

Padang Bai

Padangbai is located in the western coast of Bali about one hour drive from Bali Diving office. Situated in the area for boat crossing from Bali to Lombok Padangbai offers easy access to snorkeling locations serviced by ’jukungs’ the traditional boats.

Gili Tepekong (Biaha)

There are swarms of reef fishes at this site, the beautiful Mayer’s Butterfly fish are rare through out of Bali reefs, but is common in this site. It is the only possible to penetrate into the blowhole when a small surge laps the reef wall and water is pounded out from blowhole.
